

“...Whose Names are Unknown”

Songs and Images from America's Dust Bowl Migration

A multi-media presentation of live music and historical photographs from the Great Depression that pays tribute to the resiliency of those anonymous Americans most affected by the devastation of our most severe economic crisis.

Music by The 198 String Band

Tom Naples, Peggy Milliron, Mike Frisch

Historical narration by Dr. Joan Crouse, Hilbert College

Wednesday, March 25, 7:00 p.m.

William E. Swan Auditorium, Hilbert College

5200 South Park Ave., Hamburg, NY

Free and open to the public.

[For reserved seating contact Joan Crouse at 649-7900 or crouse@hilbert.edu]

Presented by Hilbert College, Liberal Studies Department, with generous support from the ...

New York Council for the Humanities